

ELECTRICIAN

OVERVIEW

Over eight weeks this summer (June–August), Bard SummerScape, a multi-arts festival presented by the Fisher Center at Bard, returns with a full season of dance, theater, opera, music, and the beloved Spiegel tent, staged for in-person audiences from Bard’s idyllic 1,000-acre campus and its Frank Gehry-designed performing arts center while adhering to rigorous health and safety protocols.

Electricians are part of the Lighting/Electrics team in the Production Department and will support the execution of electrical elements and needs for productions. They report to the Head Electrician and work closely with other production team members and lighting designers.

This is a seasonal position from approximately early June to mid-August, 2022, non-exempt (overtime-eligible), paid hourly at a rate range of $15–18/hr, depending on experience level. Hours will average 35–40 hours/week, with the potential for overtime.

This position requires local residence; if needed, campus housing will be provided free of charge.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Maintain a safe, healthy, and inclusive workplace at all times.
- Assist the Festival Head Electrician with the installation and maintenance of all lighting aspects of all productions and special events in the Fisher Center.
- Actively participate in all lighting work calls in the Fisher Center, as well as Spiegel tent
- Assist the Festival Head Electrician in the build and installation of production-specific lighting practicals.
- Assist the Festival Head Electrician in the daily maintenance of all theatrical lighting equipment and lighting systems, including rental gear.
- Work on the Sosnoff or Luma Lighting Crew during technical rehearsals and performances as assigned by the Festival Head Electrician.
- Other duties as assigned by the Festival Head Electrician or the Lighting Supervisor.

Company-Wide Responsibilities:

- The Fisher Center is currently undergoing an organization-wide process of change toward becoming an anti-racist, multicultural institution. All on staff are expected to:
 - Commit to anti-racism and inclusivity at the Fisher Center. This includes participating in any trainings when scheduled, supporting departmental, company-wide, and cross-departmental collaboration in issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion, and furthering your own independent journey with anti-racism.
 - Contribute in meaningful ways to the organizational culture.

FISHER CENTER

QUALIFICATIONS

- Knowledge and experience working with theatrical lighting equipment and systems, including, but not limited to: conventional and automated fixtures, dimming systems, lighting consoles, and atmospheric effects.
- Knowledge of both general theatrical production processes, as well as lighting-specific practices.
- Ability to read and understand lighting plots and paperwork.
- Knowledge of theatrical safety practices.
- Ability to comfortably and safely work at heights.
